

SOLDIER GIVES BONUS TO WAR RELIEF FUND

Praises the Objects of Non-Sectarian Campaign.

A check for $90, representing a soldier's bonus, yesterday found its way into the collection boxes of the Non-Sectarian Campaign for the Relief of the Sufferers of Eastern and Central Europe, with headquarters at 239 Fifth avenue. The gift from the former enlisted man, Leo Gittelsohn, was accompanied by a note which said: "This represents the bonus I received from the Government for my services in the army during the war. I wish to contribute it to the campaign. I have been waiting for some time to devote this money to the best possible cause. I cannot conceive of any undertaking more worthy of my efforts than this effort on your part and that of your associates to succor our unfortunates. I wish you the best of luck in this campaign and hope that New York's quota will be heavily over-subscribed."

MAXWELL HEIRS ARE SON AND DAUGHTER

The will of William H. Maxwell, superintendent emeritus of the New York public school system, was filed yesterday in the Queens County Surrogate's office at Jamaica. It disposes of an estate valued at more than $10,000 in real property and more than $5,000 in personal property. William H. Maxwell, Jr., and Mrs. Elaine M. Macklin, the late educator's son and daughter, share equally the bulk of the estate. Mr. Maxwell received the home at 33 Franklin place, Flushing, where his father died; the royalties on books now being published and stock and rights in the Shinnecock Hills and Peconic Railway Company. To Mrs. Macklin is bequeathed a house at 263 Sanford street, Flushing, and stocks and bonds. Mrs. Anna M. Brown, of Glenville, Londonderry, Ireland, an aunt of the late educator, receives an annuity of $500 for life "in recognition of the great service she rendered me," the testament says, "when I was preparing to enter college."
